

LANDEWEDNACK PARISH COUNCIL

Landewednack Cemetery – Interment Prices and Plot Purchases

Exclusive Right of Burial

It is Landewednack Parish Council's policy that an exclusive right of burial is purchased if an interment is to be made or a memorial erected on a grave. The right normally lasts for 100 years, and the 100-year time span commences from the date of purchase of the grave space.

If there is no exclusive right of burial, it is open to the Parish Council to bury unrelated bodies in the same grave, subject to a sufficiency of depth and providing any existing buried remains are not disturbed. Such graves are known variously as common or public graves.

The fees indicated apply where the person to be interred was at the time of death ordinarily resident in, and a parishioner of, the Parish of Landewednack. In any other case, where the deceased has very strong local connections and a request for burial is sought and granted by Landewednack Parish Council, the fees and payments would normally be doubled. Please note that costs shown do not include preparation of the grave nor fees for any officiating minister.

Pictures or other images of the deceased on headstones are not permitted. If flower containers are required, they must be incorporated into the headstone or memorial stone. No planting shall be permitted within the grave space.
