25/26-	69	Cornwall Council Planning Decisions: The following information from Cornwall Council was Noted: Application: PA25/01959 WITHDRAWN Location: Parnvoose Church Cove The Lizard Helston Cornwall TR12 7PH Proposal: Listed Building Consent for repairs to fire damage.
25/26-	70	The Toilets: The planters have been replenished in readiness for the summer season. Thanks are due to Cross Common Nursery for donating the geranium plants and compost here, and to Mr M Legge for planting them.
25/26-	71	The Green: Wildanet has conducted repair work to cabling within The Green. Thanks were expressed to the voluntary litter collectors; litter picking devices and gloves are being distributed. The machine for card donations has been installed on the outside of the toilet building and signage is being prepared.
25/26-	72	Highways, Footpaths, Signposts & Bus Stop: A broken road name sign had been reported to CC; this link may be used: Report an issue with a sign or road marking - Cornwall Council The Fingerpost Contractor attended on 12th June and reported that unfortunately, the existing ‘fingers’ could not be removed because an unknown compound has been used historically to “stick” the fingers in position, such that they cannot be removed in the normal manner. Therefore, a slitting disc will be necessary, and all three fingers replaced. A return visit will be required. It was Resolved to proceed with the recommended action. Complaints had been received about the cutting of a stretch of the South West Coastal Path and The Clerk was asked to report this to National Trust/Natural England as appropriate. The Housel Bay Coastal Path has been repaired, and thanks are expressed to Cornwall Council.
25/26-	73	Good Councillors Guide: The new 2025 guide has been emailed to all Councillors to read and is being sent to all the prospective Councillors.
25/26-	74	Landewednack Parish Council Insurance Renewal: It was resolved to delegate the decision for the Insurance Renewal to the Clerk as RFO, in consultation with the Asset Management and Finance Committee to enable time for the documents to be considered.
